Illinois State Police Arrests Chicago Man for Attempted Murder After Road Rage Expressway Shooting

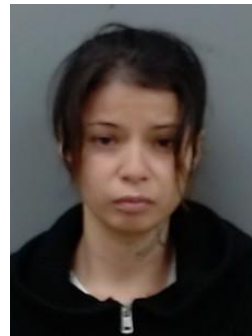

CHICAGO – Illinois State Police (ISP) Division of Criminal Investigation Zone 1 Special Agents arrested 28-year-old Pedro Anzaldue and 32-year-old Janie Palomo both of Chicago, IL after an expressway shooting on I-55.

On September 5, 2026, around 11 p.m. ISP responded to a report of an expressway shooting on I-55 southbound north of I-294 involving two suspects on a motorcycle that fired a weapon at another a vehicle after a road rage incident. No injuries were reported. After an extensive investigation, ISP Special Agents identified Anzaldue and Palomo as suspects.

On October 11, 2026, Anzaldue and Palomo were located by the Blue Island Police Department. ISP presented the case to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office and Anzaldue was charged with Attempted Murder (Class X Felony), Aggravated Discharge of a Firearm (Class 1 Felony), and Aggravated Assault (Class 4 Felony). Palomo was charged with Aggravated Assault with a Firearm (Class A Misdemeanor). Anzaldue remains in custody pending his first court appearance. Palomo was issued a Notice to Appear in Court. No further information is available.

Pedro Anzaldue (M/28)

Janie Palomo (F/32)

The charges are not evidence against the defendants, and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
