ILLINOIS STATE POLICE ARREST TWO SUSPECTS FOR A VEHICULAR HIJACKING OUT OF BROADVIEW

Chicago, IL - Illinois State Police (ISP) District Chicago Troopers arrested Demitirus Boens, a 25-year-old male of Chicago, IL and Joseph Wilson, a 25-year-old male of Oak Forest, IL for a vehicular hijacking.

On Dec. 28, 2021, at approximately 2:13 a.m., the Illinois State Police Emergency Response Network (ISPERN) broadcasted information involving a vehicle taken in a vehicular hijacking in Broadview, Illinois.

An Illinois State Police Trooper located the vehicle at Interstate 94 southbound at 91st Street and initiated a traffic stop. The vehicle fled onto 119th Street and was involved in a minor property damage crash. The two suspects exited the vehicle and were attempting to flee the scene on foot. ISP units in the area quickly responded, and after a brief foot pursuit, were able to take two suspects into custody. One suspect was transported to the hospital due to an injury from a K9 apprehension.

Boens was taken into custody and arrested for Possession of a Stolen Motor Vehicle (Class 2 Felony), Possession of Controlled Substance (Class 4 Felony), Aggravated Fleeing (Class 4 Felony), and Resisting or Obstructing a Police Officer. Boens was also cited for Operating an Uninsured Motor Vehicle, Unlawful Possession of Cannabis, Speeding 35+ Miles Above Limit, Improper Lane Usage, No Valid License, Improper Passing on Shoulder, Following Too Closely, Failure to Signal, Driving the Wrong Way, Driving on the Sidewalk, Disobeying a Traffic Control Device, Leaving the Scene of an Accident, and Failure to Wear Seat Belt. Wilson was taken into custody and arrested for Criminal Trespass to a Motor Vehicle and Resisting Arrest. Boens and Wilson are both awaiting bond court hearing at the Cook County Jail. There is no further information at this time.
