

Reporting Offense(s) In Multiple Reporting Elements Examples

- A teenager sodomizes a younger cousin he has been charged with watching while their parents go out to dinner and a movie. Rape would be reported in Index Crimes and the incident with an offense of sodomy would be entered into Domestic Offenses.
- A teacher is threatened by a parent with a pistol revolver in the teacher's classroom. Aggravated assault would be reported in Index Crimes, and aggravated assault would be reported in School Incidents/Attacks Against School Personnel, and the pistol revolver would be reported in the School Incidents/Firearms Incidents.
- A student is arrested after 10 grams of cannabis and a one-hitter pipe is located in his locker at school. One Cannabis Control Act and one Drug Paraphernalia Act offense is reported in both Index Crimes and School Incidents/Drug Offenses.
- A gay student is lured inside the school while attending a school sponsored carnival on school property on a Saturday evening. He is severely beaten by several other students because of his sexual orientation. Aggravated battery would be reported in Index Crimes and the incident with an offense of aggravated battery would be reported as a Hate Crime.
- A dating couple is employed and works at the same high school. During the lunch break the couple engages in a discussion that becomes heated. The female throws her lunch tray at the male, knocking off his glasses and causing multiple small cuts on his face requiring medical attention. Aggravated battery would be reported in Index Crimes, and the incident would be entered into Domestic Offenses, and aggravated battery would be reported in School Incidents/Attacks Against School Personnel.
- A high school student attacks his teacher, striking him numerous times rendering him unconscious in the chemistry lab. The student dumps chemicals throughout the lab and sets the area on fire. He escapes from the building; however, the teacher dies in the fire. Criminal Homicide and Arson would be reported in Index Crimes, and Criminal Homicide would be reported in School Incidents/Attacks Against School Personnel.
- A father is enraged and rapes his 16-year-old step-daughter after discovering she is dating and involved sexually with another female. Rape would be reported in Index Crimes, and the incident with an offense of Rape would be reported as a Hate Crime, and the incident with the offense of Criminal Sexual Assault would be entered into Domestic Offenses.