Sgt. Aldo Schumann Honored at Chicago Fire Soccer Event

The Protective Services Unit would like to highlight Sergeant Aldo Schumann, as he was a recent honoree, “Hero of the Match”, during a Chicago Fire soccer event on Saturday, March 1, 2025, for his continued efforts in assisting local youth. Sergeant Schumann has consistently volunteered his time by participating in First Responder Chili Cook-offs, aimed to raise money for Huntley, Illinois School District 158. Sergeant Schumann also spearheaded planning and logistics for the Team Illinois Youth Police Camp from Bourbonnais, IL to its current home, Lewis University, which he participates annually in June.

Please see the summary below, regarding Sergeant Schumann’s - Hero of the Match event:

Operation Warrior Wishes (OWW) is a veteran and first responder non-profit organization where people nominate a “hero” to various events/games throughout the country. The events range from NFL games to comedy shows to ringing the bell at the New York Stock Exchange. Once a hero has been nominated and an event becomes available, OWW then informs the hero that they were nominated and asks them if they would like to attend the event/game. OWW not only provides tickets to the event/game, they afford the hero an experience which varies from event to event.

Sergeant Schumann was nominated by a friend; Steve Lulofs, President of Veterans Q Barbecue Sauces & Rubs to attend a Chicago Fire game and be honored as the “Hero of the Match”. OWW partners with numerous professional sports teams and each team does something a little different. Especially, the partnership between the Chicago Fire and OWW where the hero is invited to tailgate with one of the supporter groups called “The Fanbulance”. During the tailgate, the hero enjoys food, beverages, and camaraderie among soccer fans. After tailgating, the hero then connects with a Chicago Fire official where they escort the hero down to the field, so they can be recognized in front of the fans right before kickoff.

TROOPER JAYME BUFFORD

As a Trooper, safety of the motoring public is our number one concern. I want to remind everyone to ALWAYS wear their seat belt. Front seat or back seat, it is the one thing that will protect you in a crash. Not only wearing it, but wearing it properly is crucial. Putting the seatbelt behind your back or under your arm will NOT protect you in a crash.

Remember, parents, you set the tone. If you wear it, your kids will wear it!
